MEDIA RELEASE

Recently, Income Tax Authorities have conducted a search at our premises. In this connection, Mirza International Limited wishes to clarify and confirm that the said search has ended peacefully across all our locations and the search teams have now left us to carry out our business operations smoothly. We would like to state that this was a routine procedure, and our Company extended full cooperation to the authorities throughout the process.

We are pleased to inform all our stakeholders that our operations across offices and factories are running smoothly. Business continues as usual, and there has been no disruption to our commitments, production, or services.

As a responsible and transparent organization, Mirza International Limited remains dedicated to maintaining the highest standards of compliance and governance. We deeply value the trust of our customers, partners, and employees, and reaffirm our commitment to serving them with the same dedication and excellence as always.
